Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Segal, Barnett, Bauer, Crawford, Damrow, Darany, Denby, Dillon, Heise, Hooker, Huuki, Kurtz, LeBlanc, Lindberg, Liss, Poleski, Potvin, Santana, Slavens and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 86.

A resolution to declare May 12, 2011, as Nurses Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Nurses are trained professionals who are respected and revered for the difficult nature of their work; and

Whereas, Nurses are recognized globally for their commitment to safe quality care for the sick and injured; and

Whereas, Nursing is growing in popularity as a career choice because of its ability to support a 21st century family; and

Whereas, Nurses are on the front lines fighting for safe patient care and safe nurse to patient ratios; and

Whereas, Nurses prevent the spread of communicable diseases by containing, controlling, and preventing outbreaks; and

Whereas, Nurses immunize our children to keep them healthy and to keep their immune systems strong; and

Whereas, Nurses in Michigan fight for the health and safety rights of the sick, the elderly, the young, the disabled, and the injured; and

Whereas, Under the leadership of the Michigan Nurses Association, registered nurses across Michigan are committed to enhancing and protecting the nursing profession on issues related to standards of practice; and

Whereas, The importance of legislative initiatives that move the agenda of nursing forward are key to the success of the profession in the future; and

Whereas, Nurses should be respected and promoted on a daily basis for the services and care they provide; and

Whereas, There is no time like the present to be energized about the future of nursing, especially here in Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 12, 2011 as Nurses Day in the state of Michigan. We honor of the work and dedication of nurses.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. LaFontaine, Goike, Muxlow, Gilbert, Damrow, Heise, Huuki, Kowall, Kurtz, LeBlanc, Potvin and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 87.

A resolution to urge the Environmental Protection Agency to allow proven bioreactor technologies, which can use liquid wastes to enhance methane generation at active and closed landfills, to move from Research, Development and Demonstration Project status to designation as full-scale permitted operations to support waste-to-energy facilities.

Whereas, Innovative and sustainable technologies that convert waste materials into green energy sources are critical for helping the state and the nation meet current and future energy and waste management challenges. The realization that waste materials still have inherent value has facilitated the development of technologies like anaerobic digesters, bioreactors, and other waste-to-energy facilities that can extract energy from environmental liabilities, such as scrap tires, household trash, septage, animal manure, and other wastes. Waste-to-energy technologies reduce environmental threats to our air, land, and water while creating energy and avoiding the use of fossil fuels; and

Whereas, The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) have recognized the value of waste-to-energy technologies. EPA's AgStar, Project XL, and Landfill Methane Outreach Program promote the generation of methane at agricultural facilities and at landfills. The DEQ's Solid Waste Policy asserts that Michigan can better capitalize on economic opportunities by creating systems that reduce waste generation and utilize waste that is generated through energy recovery and bio-gasification; and

Whereas, The Smiths Creek Landfill bioreactor Research, Development and Demonstration Project (RDDP) located in St. Clair County, Michigan is a showcase for a twenty-first century waste-to-energy solution. Since 2007, the bioreactor has utilized over 2 million gallons of residential septage to speed up the decomposition process of both the septage and other organic wastes in the landfill and extend the life of the landfill. The Smiths Creek Landfill bioreactor brings the concept of a perpetual landfill closer to reality and indicates that previously closed landfills have a renewed purpose for the treatment of liquid wastes and the generation of methane; and

Whereas, The Smiths Creek Landfill bioreactor RDDP has been a confirmed success. The project has successfully demonstrated that the addition of liquid wastes can dramatically increase landfill methane generation and waste decomposition rates without jeopardizing the environmental safety of the landfill. The bioreactor has diverted millions of gallons of septage from land application and eliminated the accompanying risks of contamination from runoff to St. Clair County's surface waters. Additionally, methane from the landfill will likely generate enough electricity to power an onsite leachate pump station, other landfill buildings, and provide Detroit Edison, the local utility, with green power to help it meet the state's renewable portfolio standards; and

Whereas, In recognition of its success, the Smiths Creek Landfill bioreactor RDDP won a 2010 PISCES Award from the EPA. The PISCES Award recognizes projects identified by state Clean Water Revolving Fund Programs as examples of innovative and sustainable strategies to enhance water quality. Clearly, the bioreactor has demonstrated the value, safety, and wisdom of adding liquid wastes to landfills for increased waste decomposition and energy production; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Environmental Protection Agency to allow proven bioreactor technologies, which can use liquid wastes to enhance methane generation at active and closed landfills, to move from Research, Development and Demonstration Project status to designation as full-scale permitted operations to support waste-to-energy facilities; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, the Director of the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

Reps. LaFontaine, Denby, Gilbert, Shaughnessy, Haugh, Hughes, Barnett, Damrow, Darany, Dillon, Goike, Heise, Huuki, Kowall, Kurtz, LeBlanc, Liss, Poleski, Potvin, Slavens and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 88.

A resolution to declare May 2011 as Lyme Disease Awareness Month in Michigan.

Whereas, As the summer season calls people to Michigan's outdoors to camp, hike, and otherwise enjoy the beauty of our lush green forests, it is an appropriate time to remind citizens of proper precautions and the safety rules of the woodlands. In recent years, Lyme disease has been a concern among outdoor enthusiasts. We urge Michigan residents to become aware of the signs and symptoms, prevention tactics, and treatment of Lyme disease; and

Whereas, An illness caused by the painless bite of a tiny deer tick, Lyme disease causes serious problems involving the heart, joints, and nervous systems in humans and animals. Prompt medical attention will minimize complications of this illness which initially may cause headaches, stiff muscles and joints, fever, nausea, and fatigue. Usually within a few days of being bitten by an infected tick, a person will develop a circular rash. However, detection of the disease is difficult because early symptoms vary and will disappear only to lead to serious problems later; and

Whereas, First recognized in children in 1975 in Lyme, Connecticut, this disease has been reported with increasing frequency throughout the United States. It is crucial that information relating to Lyme disease be available to the public and that the possible severity of its complications be understood by the citizens of Michigan. We salute the people of the Michigan Lyme Disease Association and the Michigan Department of Public Health for their efforts to expand our awareness and knowledge of the prevention and treatment of Lyme disease; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 2011 as Lyme Disease Awareness Month in Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Smiley, Darany, Barnett, Bauer, Damrow, Dillon, Heise, Huuki, Kowall, Kurtz, LeBlanc, Lindberg, Liss, Potvin, Santana, Slavens and Tyler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 89.

A resolution to urge the Department of Defense to apply uniform standards for awarding the Purple Heart, to ensure appropriate acknowledgement of our military personnel who sustain traumatic brain injuries.

Whereas, With origins that date back to George Washington, the Purple Heart medal is a highly respected expression of our nation's gratitude for the members of our military who are wounded in battle. Its recipients reflect the intimate and lasting sacrifices that so many brave men and women make to preserve the freedoms and way of life Americans cherish; and

Whereas, For many years, the eligibility criteria for the Purple Heart have been interpreted to be injuries that are visible and tangible in nature. As a result, a stigma seems to have developed about traumatic brain injuries, which at times have been called "invisible wounds." In recent years, as we have come to understand more fully the true impact of such injuries, concussions and all degrees of traumatic brain injuries are finally being acknowledged as serious threats to health. In addition, the widespread use of improvised explosive devices in Iraq and Afghanistan and the quality of equipment used and emergency care offered have contributed to a significant number of personnel surviving traumatic brain injuries; and

Whereas, The branches of our military have taken steps to recognize the seriousness of traumatic brain injuries by revamping approaches to awarding the Purple Heart. The Army very recently set new guidelines to be followed, and the other branches have been examining their practices. In spite of this notable progress, the fact remains that the application of these standards is still uneven; and

Whereas, Given the heroism displayed each day in mountains and deserts far from our shores by brave men and women working to defend our nation and its ideals, it is imperative that this nation acknowledges the sacrifices our troops make for us. By valuing the heroism of all of those who are injured, we express our lasting respect for those who suffer on our behalf; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Department of Defense to apply uniform standards for awarding the Purple Heart, to ensure appropriate acknowledgement of our military personnel who sustain traumatic brain injuries; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Secretary of the Department of Defense.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs and Homeland Security.

Reps. Lane, Byrum, Smiley, Irwin, Roy Schmidt, Melton, Brunner, Olumba, Haugh, Townsend, Dillon, Bledsoe, Santana, Segal, Womack, Barnett, Constan, Lindberg, Kandreas, Lipton, Stanley, Oakes, Talabi, Stapleton, Liss, Darany, Howze, Stallworth, Goike, Forlini, LaFontaine, Jenkins, Ouimet, Walsh, Price, O'Brien, Rendon, Haines, Hughes, Lyons and Brown offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 90.

A resolution to declare May 12, 2011, as Fibromyalgia Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Fibromyalgia is a complex chronic pain disorder that affects an estimated 10 million Americans and approximately 3 percent to 6 percent of the population worldwide; and

Whereas, While it occurs most often in women, it strikes men and children and all ethnic backgrounds; and

Whereas, For those with severe symptoms, fibromyalgia can be extremely debilitating and interfere with basic daily activities; and

Whereas, Fibromyalgia often occurs following a physical trauma, such as an acute illness or injury, which may act as a trigger in the development of the disorder. Recent studies have suggested that FM patients have generalized disturbance in pain processing and an amplified response to stimuli that would not ordinarily be painful in healthy individuals; and

Whereas, There is no known cure for fibromyalgia. Treatment focuses on relieving symptoms and improving function. A variety of prescription medications are often used to reduce pain levels and improve sleep; and

Whereas, Spreading awareness of the symptoms of fibromyalgia can help put an end to the lack of understanding, education, and awareness of fibromyalgia that causes patients to go through countless instances of mistreatment and misdiagnosis; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 12, 2011, as Fibromyalgia Awareness Day in the state of Michigan. We encourage all citizens to help educate and support family, friends, and neighbors who have been diagnosed with fibromyalgia as an expression of support and compassion to fight this dreadful pain disorder. By increasing awareness of the risk factors and taking direct actions to reduce them, we can enable those who suffer from the disorder to live more peacefully; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Office of the Governor of Michigan and Director of the Department of Community Health.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Barnett, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4409 and I voted no on granting immediate effect to House Bill 4409 because there is not sufficient notice of the retroactive nature of this bill."

Rep. Hammel, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on HB4409 and on immediate effect of the Bill because the State currently has a 48 month maximum benefit level. This Bill will do great harm to more than 12,000 Michigan families."

Rep. Segal, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on Immediate Effect because Michigan already as a 48 month limit and there is not sufficient notice for the retroactive implications of this bill."

Rep. Constan, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on HB 4409 because the members of the House of Representatives were denied an opportunity to vote on immediate effect and because I believe that Michigan should not further erode the social safety net during this severe recession Michigan citizens are facing. Aid to dependent children payments are typically given only to those citizens who cannot work for various reasons, such as disabilities. I believe there is always room for reform. However, we do not want to cut benefits to those Michigan families with young children and jeopardize losing vital Federal matching funds."

Rep. Stallworth, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 due to irreparable harm to poor citizens and the hardship of 12,000 plus families being removed from assistance despite meeting all state and program requirements."

Rep. Rutledge, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I vote no on HB4409 because of the hardship it would create for at least 12,000 families across this state. I also voted no on granted immediate effect to HB4409."

Rep. Smiley, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 because of the harm it will have on the disabled and the most vulnerable in the State of Michigan."

Rep. Nathan, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 because I think there should be a voice for the voiceless.”

Rep. Geiss, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 because this is part of the overall package of bills to shift the funding from our working poor to pay for a $1.8 Billion tax cut for businesses in Michigan.”

Rep. Howze, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 because I object to the retroactive nature of the Bill instead of making the 48-month limitation prospective, giving recipients the opportunity to prepare for the change to their benefits in these tough economic times.”

Rep. Bauer, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4409 and I voted no on immediate effect to House Bill 4409 because I feel the current 48 month limit with the allowed exceptions is working. This bill will cause undue hardship to the most vulnerable in our society.”

Rep. Meadows, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I VOTED NO ON THE PASSAGE AND IMMEDIATE EFFECT FOR HOUSE BILLS 4409 AND 4410 BECAUSE THERE IS NO REASON TO FURTHER IMPACT THE ABILITY FOR NEEDY FAMILIES TO BUY FOOD AND CLOTHING.”

Rep. Santana, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409. Because this bill will cause an incredible amount of harm to the constituents I serve. During a time of great economic turbulence it is incredible to believe the Republicans want to endanger the people of the State of Michigan.”

Rep. Byrum, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 as the legislation was retroactive.”

Rep. Oakes, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted against HB 4409 and 4410 because I refuse to take part in this war on the poor. In this legislative session the Republican-led legislature has already cut education and job training funds, revenue sharing, the Earned Income Tax Credit, the Healthy Michigan Fund and countless other tools and services that are vital to Michigan citizens. House Bills 4409 and 4410 are just a continuation down this warpath.

The bills will have devastating consequences on Michigan’s most vulnerable families, including people with disabilities. I believe in any system there is room for reform. I believe that there are some good ideas in this bill, such as substance abuse testing for recipients. However, I believe that the bad outweighs the good. When considering all of the other cuts that have already been made, I cannot in good conscience continue to kick the weakest among us while they are already down.”

Rep. Lipton, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409, and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 because, among other things, its retroactivity.”

I voted no on House Bill 4409 and I voted no on granting immediate effect to House Bill 4409 because sometimes someone has to be a voice for the voiceless.”

Rep. Switalski, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting immediate effect to House Bill 4409 because it is retroactive and could not in good conscience remove 12,600 Family Independence Agency cases immediately.”

Rep. Liss, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted against HB 4409 and 4410 because I refuse to take part in this war on the poor. In this legislative session the Republican-led legislature has already cut education and job training funds, revenue sharing, the Earned Income Tax Credit, the Healthy Michigan Fund and countless other tools and services that are vital to Michigan citizens. When considering all of the other cuts that have already been made, I cannot in good conscience continue to kick the weakest among us while they are already down.”

Rep. Cavanagh, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4409 and I voted no on granting immediate effect to House Bill 4409.

I voted against HB 4409 and 4410 because I refuse to take part in this War on the Poor. When considering all of the other cuts that have already been made, I cannot in good conscience continue to kick the weakest among us while they are already down.

Additionally, the Members of the House were disallowed from voting for immediate effect. I vote against Immediate Effect.”

Rep. Jackson, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on HB 4409 and I voted no on granting immediate effect to HB 4409 because the bill is retroactive and untimely in nature. Families need to know that they can count on the state for support during this trying economic time more than they ever have in the past.”

Rep. Tlaib, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 because it is retroactive and will cause irreparable harm to the most vulnerable in the State of Michigan—seniors, disabled, children and working poor families.”

Rep. Durhal, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I VOTED NO ON THIS BILL BECAUSE IT WILL CAUSE EXTENSIVE DAMAGE TO THE RESIDENTS OF MY DISTRICT. I ALSO VOTED AGAINST IMMEDIATE EFFECT FOR THE SAME REASON.”

Rep. Townsend, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4409 and on the motion to give it immediate effect because this legislation would do serious harm my constituents and people all over the State of Michigan. This bill is unnecessary and ill-timed. Mr. Speaker, the Michigan Legislature in 2006 enacted comprehensive welfare reform with bi-partisan support. We have a 48-month time limit on cash assistance and reasonable exemptions that protect vulnerable populations. During this trying time of high unemployment, the last thing we should do is remove support from the working poor. When you combine this proposal with the elimination of the Michigan Earned Income Tax Credit it's clear that the majority in this legislature is intent on shifting the burden onto our most vulnerable citizens while providing unprecedented tax benefits to corporations. That's the wrong direction for our state."

Rep. Stapleton, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4409 and I voted no on immediate effect because the bill does not include exceptions to the 48 month rule that are sufficient to address the issues and barriers to chronic unemployment."

Rep. Olumba, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I directly represent tens of thousands of citizens who reside within the fifth house district. I indirectly represent some 10 million people of the state of Michigan, and as I come in and out, and move about the district I represent I see suffering, I think much is clear, and I represent my constituency vigorously. However, I also stand in as proxy, to other people, citizens, of this state that go without representation, that reflects their need. I am concerned at how often I have had to speak on behalf of people who do not live within my district to appeal to the greater senses of dually elected men and women to look with compassion upon their own constituencies. Mr. Speaker, this bill arbitrarily limits social benefits to four years, and while I have played close attention to rhetoric about metrics and measurements, I have not seen any intrinsic evidence that shows what effect the elimination would have. I do know that because of this bill, there are people in the 110th district, that will go without in the days of tomorrow. In the next months, there are people in the 91st district that will have to forego washed clothes. This fall Mr. Speaker, in the 23rd and 51st district some students will go to school without a book bag, or pencils or a new pair of shoes, the result is possibility hindering this student hopes to earn a degree from the University of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I voted no on House Bill 4409 and 4410 and also no on granting immediate effect to House Bill 4409 and 4410.

I voted no on House Bill 4409 and no on granting immediate effect to House Bill 4409."

Rep. Irwin, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on HB 4409 and I voted NO on immediate effect for HB 4409 because it imposes a retroactive limit on assistance to children and families who are struggling, now more than ever, to keep a roof over their children and food on their tables."

Rep. Hobbs, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 because this bill is retroactive and will immediately begin to push residents off of cash assistance."

Rep. Ananich, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted No for passage and was opposed to immediate effect because of the economic situation in our state."

Rep. Kandreas, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on HB 4409 and I voted NO on granting IMMEDIATE EFFECT to HB 4409. HB4409, if passed into law, would NOT create a better system for social welfare, but would instead retroactively restrict many of our neediest residents from assistance even when they follow through with all demands placed upon them by the State. People can no more affect at what stages of their lifetimes, and for what duration their families will need assistance, as they can dictate to God the extent of their own good health and good fortune. This Bill is flawed, and its passage is evidence of the Majority's disregard for the crafting of sound public policy."

Rep. Womack, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on the passage of HB4409 and on immediate effect of HB 4409 because I believe this action has an adverse affect on Michigan’s most vulnerable citizens and is reprehensible.”

Rep. Talabi, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

THIS REPRESENTATIVE IS VEHEMENTLY OPPOSED TO ANY LEGISLATION THAT FURTHER CAUSES HARM TO THOSE MOST IN NEED....HB4410 CASE IN POINT. I BELIEVE WE HAVE AN OBLIGATION TO DO NO HARM.....HB4410 DOES IRREPARABLE DAMAGE.”

Rep. McCann, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on passage of this bill because I believe it will cause irreparable harm to some of the most vulnerable citizens who I represent. I supported an amendment to this bill that would have substantially improved the legislation but it was denied. I also was denied an opportunity to vote on Immediate Effect - if I had been able to vote I would’ve voted NO.”

Rep. Stanley, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4409 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4409 because the bill would cause irreparable harm to my constituents and my district. I was also denied the opportunity to vote on Immediate Effect on this bill. If I had, I would have voted No on IE.”

In The Chair: Walsh

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
Rep. Stamas moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Barnett, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4410 and I voted no on granting immediate effect to House Bill 4410 because there is not sufficient notice of the retroactive nature of this bill.”

Rep. Segal, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4410 and I voted NO on Immediate Effect because Michigan already has a 48 month limit and there is not sufficient notice for the retroactive implications of this bill.”

Rep. Smiley, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4410 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4410 because of the harm it will have on the disabled and the most vulnerable in the State of Michigan.”

Rep. Hammel, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on HB4410 and on immediate effect of the Bill because the State of Michigan currently has a 48 month limit on benefits.”

Rep. Stallworth, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4410 and I voted NO on Immediate Effect to House Bill 4410 due to its irreparable harm to working and poor families and the 12,000 citizens who would be removed from assistance despite meeting all state and program requirements.”

Rep. Howze, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4410 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4410 because I object to the retroactive nature of the Bill instead of making the 48-month limitation prospective, giving recipients the opportunity to prepare for the change to their benefits in these tough economic times.”

Rep. Nathan, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4410 and I voted NO on granting immediate Immediate Effect to House Bill 4410 because I think there should be a voice for the voiceless.”

Rep. Constan, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on HB 4410 and no on immediate effect for House Bill 4410 because the members of the House of Representatives were denied an opportunity to vote on immediate effect and because I believe that Michigan should not further erode the social safety net during this severe recession Michigan citizens are facing. Aid to dependent children payments are typically given only to those citizens who cannot work for various reasons, such as disabilities. I believe there is always room for reform. However, we do not want to cut benefits to those Michigan families with young children and jeopardize losing vital Federal matching funds.”

Rep. Rutledge, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no HB4410 because it will cause serious harm to some families in my district. I also voted no to giving immediate effect to HB4410.”

Rep. Bauer, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no on House Bill 4410 and I voted no on immediate effect to House Bill 4410 because I feel the current 48 month limit with the allowed exceptions is working. This bill will cause undue hardship to the most vulnerable in our society.”

Rep. Meadows, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I VOTED NO ON THE PASSAGE AND IMMEDIATE EFFECT FOR HOUSE BILLS 4409 AND 4410 BECAUSE THERE IS NO REASON TO FURTHER IMPACT THE ABILITY FOR NEEDY FAMILIES TO BUY FOOD AND CLOTHING.”

Rep. Geiss, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4410 and I voted NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4410 because this is part of the overall package of bills to shift the funding from our working poor to pay for a $1.8 Billion tax cut for businesses in Michigan.”

Rep. Byrum, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on House Bill 4410 and NO on granting Immediate Effect to House Bill 4410 because it was retroactive.”

Rep. Oakes, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted against HB 4409 and 4410 because I refuse to take part in this war on the poor. In this legislative session the Republican-led legislature has already cut education and job training funds, revenue sharing, the Earned Income Tax Credit, the Healthy Michigan Fund and countless other tools and services that are vital to Michigan citizens. House Bills 4409 and 4410 are just a continuation down this warpath.

The bills will have devastating consequences on Michigan’s most vulnerable families, including people with disabilities. I believe in any system there is room for reform. I believe that there are some good ideas in this bill, such as substance abuse testing for recipients. However, I believe that the bad outweighs the good. When considering all of the other cuts that have already been made, I cannot in good conscience continue to kick the weakest among us while they are already down.”

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I directly represent tens of thousands of citizens who reside within the fifth house district. I indirectly represent some 10 million people of the state of Michigan, and as I come in and out, and move about the district I represent I see suffering, I think much is clear, and I represent my constituency vigorously. However, I also stand in as proxy, to other people, citizens, of this state that go without representation, that reflects their need. I am concerned at how often I have had to speak on behalf of people who do not live within my district to appeal to the greater senses of dually elected men and women to look with compassion upon their own constituencies. Mr. Speaker, this bill arbitrarily limits social benefits to four years, and while I have played close attention to rhetoric about metrics and measurements, I have not seen any intrinsic evidence that shows what effect the elimination would have. I do know that because of this bill, there are people in the 110th district, that will go without in the days of tomorrow. “Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted NO on HB 4410 and I voted NO on immediate effect for HB 4410 because it imposes a retroactive limit on assistance to children and families who are struggling, now more than ever, to keep a roof over their children and food on their tables.”
