Rep. Ranjeev Puri, from the 24th District, offered the following invocation:

“Waheguru, Ram, God, Allah, Divine

Waheguru ji ka Khalsa, Waheguru ji kay Fateh

We live in challenging times. We are here to serve, and we want to do our best – but we are also imperfect beings living in an imperfect world.

Give us the humility to recognize our smallness and our shortcomings and our limits – and that the world extends beyond our individual selves.

Give us the courage to grapple with this reality. Courage to work for justice at the risk of personal harm. Courage to show up in public, knowing that this work comes with exposure and vulnerability and hurt – and yet we do it anyway.

Give us the wisdom to see Your goodness in all we encounter. The wisdom to realize that divinity resides equally in each and every one of us – including ourselves. Give us the wisdom to not just believe in our interconnectedness, but to live it.

And finally, give us the conviction to help keep us steadfast, through all the ups and downs of our own lives and through all the tumult of the world. Give us the conviction to do what is right and to do it for the right reasons – no matter how hard it is or what the consequences might be.

I will close with the last line of ardaas, a daily congregational prayer, which asks for well-being of all people and the spirit of optimism that keeps us motivated and connected in all aspects of life:

Nanak Nam Chardi Kala Tere Bhane Sarbat Da Bhala

Thank you.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Byrnes, Miller, Dievendorf, Edwards, Morgan, Hope, Hoskins, Arbit, Morse, Rheingans, Breen, Tsernoglou, Wilson, Coffia, McFall, Andrews, Churches, McKinney, Brixie, Wegela, Brabec, Conlin and Glanville offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 139.

A resolution to declare October 1-7, 2023, as Banned Books Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The freedom to read is essential to our democracy and reading is among our greatest freedoms; and

Whereas, Privacy is essential to the exercise of that freedom and the right to privacy is the right to open inquiry without having the subject of one's interest examined or scrutinized by others; and

Whereas, The freedom to read is protected by our constitution; and

Whereas, Some individuals, groups, and public authorities work to remove or limit access to reading materials, to censor content in schools, to label views as "controversial," to distribute lists of "objectionable" books or authors, and to purge libraries of materials reflecting the diversity of society; and

Whereas, Both governmental intimidation and the fear of censorship cause authors who seek to avoid attacks on their work to practice self-censorship, thus limiting our access to new ideas; and

Whereas, Every silencing of dissent, every enforcement of a conventionality, diminishes the imagination and resilience of American society and leaves it less able to deal with controversy and difference; and

Whereas, Americans still favor free enterprise in ideas and expression, and can be trusted to exercise critical judgment, to recognize propaganda and misinformation, and to make their own decisions about what they read and believe, and to exercise the responsibilities that accompany this freedom; and

Whereas, Intellectual freedom is essential to the preservation of a free society and a creative culture; and

Whereas, Conformity limits the range and variety of inquiry and expression on which our democracy and our culture depend; and

Whereas, The American Library Association's Banned Books Week: celebrating the freedom to read is observed during the first week of October as a reminder to Americans not to take their precious freedom for granted; and

Whereas, Banned Books Week celebrates the freedom to select reading materials that reflect a wide range of opinions, identities, and lived experiences, and reinforces the importance of every person's right to gain access to ideas that challenge societal norms and empower them to read with pride; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 1-7, 2023, as Banned Books Week in the state of Michigan.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Reps. Brenda Carter, Bezotte, Churches, Fitzgerald and Haadsma offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 140.

A resolution to declare September 2023 as Life Insurance Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Many Americans recognize that it is important to protect their loved ones with life insurance; and

Whereas, Life insurance benefits and claims totaled $797.7 billion in 2022 alone, providing a tremendous source of financial relief and security to families that experience the loss of a loved one; and

Whereas, Despite the importance that people place on life insurance and the peace of mind that it brings to millions of American families, there are still too many Americans who lack adequate coverage; and

Whereas, The unfortunate reality is that 106 million American adults are without life insurance or are underinsured and most with coverage have less than most experts recommend; and

Whereas, During times like these when so many families continue to struggle, life insurance coverage is more important than ever because people have fewer financial resources to fall back on than in years past, increasing their financial vulnerability; and

Whereas, The nonprofit Life Happens and a coalition representing hundreds of leading life insurance companies and organizations have designated September 2023 as “Life Insurance Awareness Month,” whose goal is to get consumers thinking about their need for life insurance protection, to encourage them to seek advice from a qualified insurance professional and to take the actions necessary to achieve a financially secure future for their loved ones; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare September 2023 as Life Insurance Awareness Month in the state of Michigan. We urge everyone in the state to learn more about life insurance and its benefits.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Rep. Posthumus moved that Rep. Fox be excused temporarily from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.
