

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE BILL NO. 954

A bill to prohibit excessive pricing for certain lodgings during a declared state of emergency; to provide remedies and penalties; and to provide for the powers and duties of certain state and local governmental officers and entities.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF MICHIGAN ENACT:

1           Sec. 1. This act may be cited as the "hotel and lodging 2 pricing protection act".

3           Sec. 2. As used in this act:

4           (a) "Declaration of emergency" means a declaration of a state 5 of emergency.

6           (b) "Excessively increased price" means a price that 7 demonstrates an unjustified disparity between the price of lodging 8 advertised, or offered for sale or rent, for the market where the

1 lodging is located, immediately before a declaration of emergency 2 and the price of lodging advertised, or offered for sale or rent, 3 in that market during or reasonably after a declaration of 4 emergency. As used in this subdivision, an unjustified disparity is 5 a disparity of more than 10% unless the person offering, selling, 6 or renting lodging can demonstrate that the increase in price is 7 attributable to an increase in the cost of the goods or labor used 8 in its business, an extraordinary discount in effect before the 9 declaration of emergency, or an adjustment in rates that is 10 regularly scheduled.

11 (c) "Lodging" means a building or structure kept, used, 12 maintained as, or held out to the public to be an inn, hotel, or 13 public lodging house. Lodging includes, but is not limited to, all 14 of the following:

15 (i) A full-service hotel, limited-service hotel, resort, 16 conference center, extended-stay hotel, vacation ownership, or 17 convention hotel offering permanent or temporary stays.

18 (ii) A bed and breakfast.

19 (iii) A space rented in a mobile home park or campground.

20 (d) "State of emergency" means a natural or man-made disaster 21 or emergency resulting from a tornado, earthquake, flood, fire, 22 riot, storm, act of war, threat of war, military action, or period 23 of instability following a terrorist attack, or a threat to the 24 public health, for which a state of emergency is declared by the 25 governor under the laws of this state.

26 Sec. 3. During or reasonably after a declaration of emergency, 27 a person engaged in the business of offering, selling, or renting 28 lodging shall not do any of the following in a county, city, or 29 township subject to the declared state of emergency:

1 (a) Charge a price that is grossly in excess of the price at 2 which similar lodging is advertised, offered, or sold.

3 (b) Charge an excessively increased price for lodging.

4 (c) Offer lodging for sale or rent at an excessively increased 5 price.

6 Sec. 4. (1) If the attorney general or a local prosecuting 7 attorney has reasonable cause to believe that an individual has 8 information or is in possession, custody, or control of any 9 document or other tangible object relevant to an investigation for 10 a violation of this act, the attorney general or prosecuting 11 attorney may serve on the individual a written demand to appear and 12 be examined under oath, and to produce the documents or object for 13 inspection and copying. The demand must meet all of the following:

14 (a) Be served upon the individual in the manner prescribed for 15 service of process under the law of this state.

16 (b) Describe the nature of the conduct constituting the 17 violation under investigation.

18 (c) Describe the document or object with sufficient 19 definiteness to permit it to be fairly identified.

20 (d) If requested, contain a copy of the written 21 interrogatories.

22 (e) Prescribe a reasonable time at which the individual must 23 appear to testify and within which the individual must answer the 24 written interrogatories and the document or object must be 25 produced.

26 (f) Advise the individual that objections to or reasons for 27 not complying with the demand may be filed with the attorney 28 general or prosecuting attorney on or before the time described in 29 subdivision (e).

1 (g) Specify a place for the taking of testimony, or for 2 production, and designate the individual who is to be the custodian 3 of the document or object.

4 (h) Contain a copy of the language provided in subsection (2) 5 with appropriate citation.

6 (2) If an individual fails to comply with the written demand 7 served under subsection (1), the attorney general or a local 8 prosecuting attorney may file an action to enforce the demand.
9 Notice of hearing and a copy of the pleadings and other relevant 10 papers must be served upon the individual, who may appear in 11 opposition. If the court finds that the demand is proper, the court 12 shall order the individual to comply with the demand, subject to 13 modification as the court may prescribe. Upon motion by the 14 individual and for good cause shown, the court may make any further 15 order in the proceedings that justice requires to protect the 16 individual from unreasonable burden or expense.

17 (3) An action filed under subsection (2) must be filed in the 18 circuit court of the county in which the individual resides or in 19 which the individual maintains a principal place of business within 20 this state, or in the circuit court for the county of Ingham.

21 (4) The fact that an investigative demand has been issued is 22 not confidential, but the testimony taken and material produced 23 during the investigation must be kept confidential unless an 24 enforcement action is brought against a person for violation of 25 this act. Once the action is filed, the investigative material may 26 be disclosed in the course of discovery, pursuant to a protective 27 order if the court considers appropriate, and in support of or 28 opposition to the claims and defenses raised in the action, but in 29 all other respects remains confidential.

1           Sec. 5. (1) The attorney general may bring a class action on 2 behalf of persons residing in or injured in this state for the 3 actual damages caused by conduct prohibited under section 3 to 4 recover actual damages or $100.00, whichever is greater.

5           (2) On motion of the attorney general and without bond in an 6 action brought under this section, the court may make an 7 appropriate order to do any of the following:

8           (a) Reimburse persons who have suffered damages.

9           (b) Carry out a transaction in accordance with the aggrieved 10 persons' reasonable expectations.

11           (c) Strike or limit the application of unconscionable clauses 12 of contracts to avoid an unconscionable result.

13           (d) Grant other appropriate relief.

14           (3) The court after a hearing may appoint a receiver or order 15 sequestration of the defendant's assets if it appears to the 16 satisfaction of the court that the defendant threatens or is about 17 to remove, conceal, or dispose of the defendant's assets to the 18 detriment of members of the class.

19           (4) If at any stage of the proceedings under this section the 20 court requires that notice be sent to the class, the attorney 21 general may petition the court to require the defendant to bear the 22 cost of the notice. In determining whether to impose the cost on 23 the defendant, the court shall consider the probability that the 24 attorney general will succeed on the merits of the action.

25           (5) If the defendant shows by a preponderance of the evidence 26 that a violation of this act resulted from a bona fide error 27 notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to 28 avoid the error, the amount of recovery must be limited to actual 29 damages.

1 (6) The attorney general shall not bring an action under this 2 section more than 6 years after the occurrence of the method, act, 3 or practice that is the subject of the action and not more than 1 4 year after the last payment in a transaction involving the method, 5 act, or practice that is the subject of the action, whichever 6 period of time ends on a later date.

7 Sec. 6. (1) The attorney general may bring an action for 8 appropriate injunctive or other equitable relief and civil 9 penalties in the name of the people of this state for a violation 10 of this act. The court may impose a civil fine for each violation 11 of this act. For an individual, the civil fine must not be more 12 than $10,000.00 per violation. For a person other than an 13 individual, the civil fine must not be more than $1,000,000.00 per 14 violation.

15 (2) This state, a political subdivision, or a public agency 16 injured directly or indirectly by a violation of this act may bring 17 an action for appropriate injunctive or other equitable relief, 18 actual damages sustained by reason of a violation of this act and, 19 as determined by the court, interest on those damages from the date 20 of the complaint, and taxable costs. If the trier of fact finds 21 that the violation is flagrant, it may increase recovery to an 22 amount not to exceed 3 times the actual damages sustained by reason 23 of the violation.

24 Sec. 7. A person that violates section 3 with the intent to 25 accomplish a result prohibited by this act is guilty of a 26 misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 1 year or 27 a fine of not more than $10,000.00, or both, if an individual, or a 28 fine of not more than $1,000,000.00 if a person other than an 29 individual.

1           Sec. 8. The remedies provided in this act are cumulative.

2           Sec. 9. If a witness has been or may be called to testify or 3 provide other information at a proceeding under or related to this 4 act, the circuit court for the county in which the proceeding is or 5 may be held may issue, upon application of the attorney general, 6 asserting that in the attorney general's judgment the testimony or 7 other information may be necessary to the public interest and that 8 the witness has refused or is likely to refuse to testify, an order 9 requiring the witness to give testimony or provide other 10 information that the witness refuses to give or provide on the 11 basis of the privilege against self-incrimination, if the court 12 provides in its order that the witness shall not be prosecuted or 13 subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for, or on account of, any 14 transaction, occurrence, matter, or thing to which the witness 15 testifies or provides other information or evidence, documentary or 16 otherwise, and that the testimony, information, or evidence must 17 not be used against the witness in any criminal investigation, 18 proceeding, or trial, except a prosecution for perjury for giving a 19 false statement or for otherwise failing to comply with the order.

20           Sec. 10. This act does not exempt, limit, or impair the 21 attorney general's ability to investigate, determine, or impose 22 liability under the Michigan consumer protection act, 1976 PA 331, 23 MCL 445.901 to 445.922, or any other law of this state.

24           Sec. 11. This act does not prohibit an owner from evicting a 25 tenant for a lawful reason.

26           Enacting section 1. This act does not take effect unless all 27 of the following bills of the 102nd Legislature are enacted into 28 law:

29           (a) Senate Bill No. 955.

1 (b) Senate Bill No. 956.
