

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 10

Senator Brinks offered the following concurrent resolution:

1 A concurrent resolution to observe the 150th anniversary of 2 the laying of the cornerstone of the Michigan State Capitol.

3 Whereas, On Thursday, October 2, 1873, a crowd of over 30,000
4 Michiganders thronged to Lansing, a city of 7,000, for the laying
5 of the cornerstone of the new State Capitol. Hotels in the city 6 were full and residents opened their homes to house those who had 7 come to bear witness on the historic day. The railroads offered 8 half fare to those traveling and churches were turned into 9 restaurants to provide food for the celebrants; and

10 Whereas, A mile-and-a-half-long parade, marked by the 11 newspapers almost unanimously as the highlight of the day, made its

1 way through the streets of the city and ended at Capitol Square
2 where state officials, military officers and troops, civic 3 organizations, fraternal organizations, and other spectators
4 assembled for the official ceremony; and

5       Whereas, Several speakers made remarks, including Governor
6 John J. Bagley, who said,

7       “To those of us who have watched the growth of Michigan from 8 infancy to manhood the occasion recalls the toils and trials of 9 early days, the anxieties and cares of pioneer life; while a 10 pardonable egotism as we look about us tells of battles fought and 11 victories won over nature in her most ragged mood. To-day we stand 12 here as conquerors of forest and swamp, and can proudly say: ‘If 13 thou seekest a beautiful peninsula, behold it here.’”

14       ; and

15       Whereas, The cornerstone itself is five tons of granite from 16 Quincy, Massachusetts, engraved on two sides with “A.D. 1872” and 17 “A.D. 1878” to mark the beginning and end of construction; and

18       Whereas, During the Masonic rites, a list of the contents of 19 the cornerstone was read which included the contents of the 20 cornerstone from Territorial Capitol in Detroit, the act providing 21 for the erection of the Capitol, the specifications for erecting 22 the Capitol; reports of all state boards for 1872, legislative 23 manuals, a pen used to sign the Constitution of 1835, and copies of 24 the daily newspapers published on September 27, 1873, among other 25 items; and

26       Whereas, Spectators from around the state including the 27 communities of Detroit, Kalamazoo, Bay City, Constantine, 28 Hillsdale, Adrian, Grand Rapids, Jackson, Ionia, Niles, Ann Arbor,
29 Marshall, Dowagiac, Corunna, St. Johns, Lexington, Howell, Fenton,

1 Three Rivers, Lyons, and others watched as the stone was raised
2 twelve feet into the air and then lowered into place to the booming
3 of cannons; and

4       Whereas, In 1978 and 1979, to mark the centennial of 5 completion and dedication, the cornerstone was opened, refilled,
6 and relayed in ceremonies under the direction of Governor William 7 G. Milliken, Secretary of State Richard H. Austin, Senate Majority
8 Leader William Faust, and Speaker of the House Bobby Crim. Numerous 9 events also marked this important occasion including the 10 publication of The Watch of the Capitol by Lansing historian and 11 author Mary Jane McClintock Wilson. This work draws heavily from 12 the Jenison scrapbooks, a set of six volumes compiled by local 13 collector Orien A. Jenison chronicling the Capitol's 1872-1878
14 construction. Jenison worked closely on this project with Allen 15 Bours, the secretary of the State Building Commission; and

16       Whereas, The 1970s celebration of our Capitol's centennial,
17 and the publication of The Watch of the Capitol, began a movement
18 to restore the much modified and neglected building; now,
19 therefore, be it

20       Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives 21 concurring), That the members of this legislative body observe the 22 150th anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone of the Michigan
23 State Capitol; and be it further

24       Resolved, That we recognize and commemorate the milestone of 25 the sesquicentennial of the laying of the cornerstone of the third
26 and current Michigan State Capitol; and be it further

27       Resolved, That we thank Mary Jane McClintock Wilson for her 28 work educating Michiganders about the importance of preserving and 29 restoring our historic Capitol; and be it further

1           Resolved, That we commend the work of the Michigan State
2 Capitol Commission to maintain the Lion of Lansing, one of the 3 finest examples of Victorian architecture in the United States, and 4 the first of Elijah E. Myers' three state capitol buildings; and be 5 it further

6           Resolved, That we urge the citizens of Michigan to visit their 7 State Capitol between 2023 and 2029 during the 150th anniversary of 8 its construction.
