

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 69

Senator Geiss offered the following resolution:

1           A resolution to designate September 2023 as Childhood Cancer
2 Awareness Month.

3           Whereas, According to the American Childhood Cancer
4 Organization, an estimated 15,780 children between the ages of 5 birth through 19 are diagnosed with cancer each year; and

6           Whereas, In 2023 alone, an estimated 9,910 new cases have been 7 diagnosed; and

8           Whereas, Our goal is to increase awareness about childhood
9 cancer, which is the leading cause of death by disease for children 10 under the age of 14; and

11           Whereas, We honor the extraordinary resilience, courage, and 12 strength of those who this harmful disease has effected; and

1           Whereas, Children's cancer affects all ethnic, gender, and 2 socio-economic groups; and

3           Whereas, Since the mid-1970s, advancements have been made in 4 the fight against childhood cancer. Due to major treatment strides
5 in recent decades, more than 80 percent of children with cancer now 6 survive five years or more; and

7           Whereas, Increased awareness, support, and research will help 8 to further improve outcomes and protect children from these serious 9 diseases; and

10           Whereas, We must renew our commitment to curing childhood 11 cancer and offer our support to the brave young people who are 12 fighting this disease; and

13           Whereas, To honor the memory of every young person lost to 14 cancer, we must unite behind improved treatment, advanced research 15 and data, and brighter futures for young people; and

16           Whereas, We recognize the amazing strength, perseverance, and 17 optimism of the families and friends of children who suffer from 18 these devastating illnesses; and

19           Whereas, We acknowledge the medical professionals, 20 researchers, and others who dedicate their time to search for new 21 and safer treatments and cures; and

22           Whereas, All children deserve the chance to be healthy and 23 find joy and fulfillment in their childhoods, as they deserve the 24 chance to realize their full potential and grow into adults; now, 25 therefore, be it

26           Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative 27 body designate September 2023 as Childhood Cancer Awareness Month.
