Pastor Pat Bossio Jr., Pastor of CHRISTfamily Church in Brownstown Township, offered the following invocation:

“Dear Father in heaven, I thank You for Your presence, divine guidance, wisdom, and grace.

You have always been with us wherever we are and whatever is happening to us. You are here right now and we welcome You. Have Your way, please lead us so may we be mindful of the things that You love. Help us to care about the people that You have made and their many needs. Meet the needs of the hurting and the poor in our community. Strengthen and comfort them. Use the people of Michigan as a source of Your love, a conduit of Your grace. Through Jesus on the cross, You showed us mercy so may we be merciful too.

Today this chamber is filled with leaders. May these leaders experience guidance by Your Holy Spirit to do what is right. No matter what the cost. May they know that they are prayed for, thought about, and loved. May these leaders know that they are more valuable than what they do because of the character of their hearts. Let holy Light shine upon us today to do good.

Thank You for Your wonderful state of grace in our wonderful state. May Your Name Be Praised Today. In Jesus Name. Amen.”

Rep. Fitzgerald moved that Reps. Andrews, Brenda Carter, Myers-Phillips, O’Neal, Whitsett and Young be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Posthumus moved that Rep. Wortz be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Messages from the Senate

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 6.

A concurrent resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Virgil Clark Smith, former member of the Michigan Senate and Michigan House of Representatives.

Whereas, It was with great sorrow that the members of the Legislature learned about the passing of Virgil Clark Smith. A dedicated public servant for over 40 years, he was a trailblazer who served his community with courage, dignity, compassion, and integrity. He will be remembered as a dedicated public servant and justice-seeker by his constituents in Wayne County and the people of our great state; and

Whereas, A Detroit native, Virgil Clark Smith graduated from Pershing High School in 1965. He remained in Michigan to continue his education, receiving a bachelor's degree in political science from Michigan State University and a juris doctor from Wayne State University Law School; and

Whereas, After law school, Virgil Clark Smith began his long career in public service, which included serving as a legal advisor to community groups for Wayne County Legal Services and as senior assistant corporation counsel for the City of Detroit Law Department; and

Whereas, In 1976, Virgil Clark Smith won a tough primary, defeating the incumbent, and made his way to the Capitol the following year to serve in the House of Representatives, where he would represent the people of the Tenth District for nearly twelve years. During his time in this chamber, he would serve on numerous committees, including as chair of the Committee on Economic Development and Energy and majority vice chair of the Committees on Judiciary and Taxation, while also serving on the Committees on Colleges and Universities, Corrections, Elections, Insurance, Labor, and Tourist Industry Relations, as well as the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules. In addition to his service on standing committees, Virgil Clark Smith was appointed chair of the Joint Legislative Committee on State Assumption of Trial Court Operation, the House Special Committee to Study State Financing of the Courts, and the House Ad Hoc Special Committee to Study State Financing of the Courts. Known as a champion of Detroit, he used those same skills to reorganize the court system. His leadership qualities were recognized by his caucus where he served as a Majority Floor Whip from 1979 to 1982 and as an Assistant Majority Floor Leader from 1983 to 1988. He would remain in the House until 1988 when he was elected in a special election to represent the Second District in the state Senate; and

Whereas, While in the Senate, Virgil Clark Smith represented part of East Detroit, Highland Park, and Hamtramck. Noted for his quick grasp of issues, his knowledge of the legislative process, and a sensitivity to the needs of Michigan citizens, he was a significant figure while serving in the minority. Moreover, he was known for his pursuit of fairness through the law and being a strong voice on policy questions. Never afraid of a challenge, he worked in a bipartisan fashion to reorganize Detroit Public Schools despite immense pressure. His work continued through the committee process where he served as minority vice chair of the Committees on Families, Mental Health and Human Services; Finance; Gaming and Casino Oversight; and Government Operations. Additionally, he served on the Committees on Banking and Financial Institutions; Family Law, Criminal Law, and Corrections; Judiciary; and Local Government and Veterans; as well as the Committee on Appropriations and its Capital Outlay, Regulatory, and Transportation Subcommittees. He also served on the Legislative Council and was a member of the Michigan Legislative Black Caucus. From 1995 to 2000, he served as the Senate Democratic Floor Leader, the first African American to hold the position. Recognized with numerous awards, in 1996 he was voted Legislator of the Year by both the Michigan Judges Association and the Police Officers Association of Michigan; and

Whereas, After leaving the Legislature, Virgil Clark Smith served in the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office, where he was appointed as a division chief of legislation and community outreach. In 2004, he was appointed as a judge to the Wayne County Circuit Court by Governor Jennifer Granholm. From 2009 to 2014, Virgil Clark Smith served as the chief judge, once again blazing a trail by becoming the first African American to hold such a position. Virgil Clark Smith would serve on the bench until he retired in 2018; and

Whereas, Virgil Clark Smith's dedication to his community went beyond the nine-to-five jobs that he held. He served as the chair of the Mayor of Detroit's Task Force on Arson, as the secretary of Consolidated Black Economic Development Inc., and as the vice president of the Seven-Mile-Ryan Emery Block Club. Virgil also served as an executive board member of the Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity, Inner City Drug Abuse Inc., and New Detroit. Additionally, he was a member of the NAACP, the National Bar Association, the Wolverine Bar Association, the State Bar of Michigan, and the Detroit Strategic Planning Commission; and

Whereas, Virgil Clark Smith is remembered by his friends, family, and colleagues as a tenacious man who was not afraid to fight for his constituents or what he thought was right. Throughout his illustrious career, Virgil Clark Smith always maintained a high level of professionalism and conducted himself with dignity. Respected by colleagues and staff on both sides of the aisle, many considered him to be the ideal political mentor; and

Whereas, Outside of his work, Virgil Clark Smith enjoyed riding his motor scooter, kayaking on the Detroit River, and spending time with his family. He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; four children, Virgil, Adam, Anthony, and Jordan; and two grandchildren; and

Whereas, Upon Virgil Clark Smith's passing, we offer our condolences to his loved ones. His contributions to these chambers and the state of Michigan will be remembered; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Virgil Clark Smith, a member of Michigan's House of Representatives from 1977 to 1988 and the Michigan Senate from 1988 to 2000; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Smith family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Motions and Resolutions

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 189 out of numerical order.

Reps. Robinson, DeBoyer, Maddock, Aragona, McKinney, Schuette, Slagh, Tate, Fitzgerald, Phil Green, Wozniak, Kelly, St. Germaine, BeGole, Markkanen, Fairbairn, Prestin, Steele, Tisdell, Beson, Woolford, Posthumus, Rigas, Mentzer, Jaime Greene, Kuhn, Morgan, Steckloff, Harris, Frisbie, Linting, Kunse, Roth, Farhat, Breen, Fox, Glanville, Lightner, Miller, Paiz, Paquette, Rheingans, Rogers, Skaggs, Witwer and Wooden offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 189.

A resolution to commemorate the Detroit Red Wings on their 100th season.

Whereas, The Detroit Red Wings were founded in 1926 as part of what would later be recognized as the “Original Six” era of the National Hockey League. The team was first called the Detroit Cougars, then the Detroit Falcons, before adopting their iconic name, the Detroit Red Wings, in 1932; and

Whereas, The organization has long embodied the heart and spirit of both the city of Detroit and the state of Michigan. Their winged wheel logo is a homage to the strength, speed, and industrious legacy of Detroit’s automotive workforce. For a century, the Red Wings have reflected the resilience of Detroiters and the grit of Michiganders alike; and

Whereas, Since their founding, the Detroit Red Wings have become the most successful American-based team in NHL history, earning 11 Stanley Cup titles in 1936, 1937, 1943, 1950, 1952, 1954, 1955, 1997, 1998, 2002, and 2008. They have also recorded more than 3,000 wins and made twenty-five consecutive playoff appearances, a record that underscores their lasting excellence; and

Whereas, The enduring success of the Detroit Red Wings has been built by generations of legendary owners, coaches, players, and staff. Since 1926, more than 1,000 players have donned the winged wheel and the franchise remains one of the most honored organizations in the Hockey Hall of Fame with eighty-three iconic inductees; and

Whereas, Though the Red Wings are known for their accolades and on the ice accomplishments, their influence has extended far beyond the rink. The team has become a cultural institution, inspiring generations of devoted fans and drawing recognition from across the sports and entertainment world. From celebrities proudly wearing the winged wheel to appearances in film and media, the Red Wings have helped shape Michigan’s identity as the home of Hockeytown and the pinnacle of hockey excellence; and

Whereas, The Red Wings also reflect the best of Michigan through their steadfast commitment to service. Through the Detroit Red Wings Foundation, the team has consistently provided support and resources to programs that strengthen local communities and foster youth development through hockey across the state; and

Whereas, As the Red Wings enter their 100th season, it is fitting to honor the enduring legacy they have built over the past century. Thorough triumphs and challenges, this team has remained a source of pride, unity, and identity for generations of Michiganders. They have stood not only as a symbol of sporting excellence, but also of the spirit and strength within our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the Detroit Red Wings on their 100th season. We honor a century of excellence, resilience, and service to the people of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Detroit Red Wings organization as a token of our esteem and appreciation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 190 out of numerical order.

Reps. Snyder, Breen, Glanville, Jaime Greene, Mentzer, Miller, Paiz, Rogers, Witwer and Wooden offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 190.

A resolution to declare October 8, 2025, as National APEX Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The APEX program, originally established as Procurement Technical Assistance Centers (PTACs) in the early 1980s, was created to assist businesses in navigating the complex federal procurement process and to increase small business participation in government contracting; and

Whereas, 2025 marks the 40th anniversary of the APEX program, which was formally authorized by Congress in 1985, recognizing its vital role in strengthening the nation’s industrial base and supporting small businesses in accessing government contracts; and

Whereas, Over the past four decades, the program has evolved and expanded nationally, providing essential expertise, counseling, and training that enables businesses to compete successfully for government contracts, thereby promoting economic growth and job creation across Michigan and the United States; and

Whereas, The Michigan Alliance of APEX Accelerators (MAAA) serves as a statewide network of procurement assistance centers dedicated to helping Michigan businesses access contracting opportunities at the federal, state, and local levels; and

Whereas, Last year Michigan APEX Accelerators supported 3,420 businesses, helping to create 24,180 jobs throughout the state and assisting businesses in securing $2.23 billion in prime and subcontract awards, significantly contributing to Michigan's economic vitality; and

Whereas, The State of Michigan acknowledges the value and contribution of APEX Accelerators in strengthening the local and national defense industrial base, expanding procurement opportunities, and supporting the overall prosperity of Michigan's economy; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 8, 2025, as National APEX Day in the state of Michigan. We honor the outstanding work of Michigan APEX Accelerators and their commitment to supporting the growth and success of small businesses across the state and commemorate the 40th anniversary of the APEX program's congressional authorization in 1985.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 191 out of numerical order.

Reps. Rigas, Outman, Neyer, Jaime Greene, Linting, Paquette, Bierlein, Bohnak, DeBoyer, Kunse, Steckloff, Breen, Brixie, Dievendorf, Fox, Glanville, Lightner, Longjohn, Mentzer, Miller, Paiz, Posthumus, Rheingans, Rogers, Weiss, Witwer and Wooden offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 191.

A resolution to declare October 15, 2025, as Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Each year, approximately one million pregnancies in the United States end in miscarriage, stillbirth, or the death of a newborn baby; and

Whereas, Recognizing Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day acknowledges the occurrence of miscarriage, stillbirth, and infant loss; and

Whereas, The observance of this day may support those affected by such losses; and

Whereas, Public awareness and education regarding miscarriage, stillbirth, and infant loss can facilitate informed and compassionate responses from families, professionals, and communities. Professionals such as physicians, clergy, emergency medical technicians, funeral directors, police officers, public health nurses, educators, and employers who interact with families experiencing these losses may provide more effective support with increased understanding; and

Whereas, Recognizing this day offers an opportunity for the people of Michigan to increase their awareness regarding pregnancy and infant loss; and

Whereas, The observance may encourage individuals and communities to consider ways to address the needs of bereaved families and support efforts to prevent such losses; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 15, 2025, as Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day in the state of Michigan. We support the goals and ideals of National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day; and be it further

Resolved, That we acknowledge the experiences of families affected by miscarriage, stillbirth, or infant loss, with the intent to provide support and resources to women and families across the state to understand and process their experiences.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 192 out of numerical order.

Reps. Cavitt, Breen, Fox, Glanville, Jaime Greene, Longjohn, Miller, Paiz, Rheingans, Rogers, Skaggs, Weiss and Wooden offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 192.

A resolution to declare October 9, 2025, as PANDAS Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Pediatric Autoimmune Neuropsychiatric Disorders Associated with Streptococcal Infections (PANDAS) and Pediatric Acute-onset Neuropsychiatric Syndrome (PANS) are medical conditions that affect children following an infection, leading to a sudden and severe onset of obsessive-compulsive behaviors, anxiety, tics, eating disorders, and other neuropsychiatric symptoms; and

Whereas, PANDAS and PANS can have devastating impacts on children and families, often leading to significant educational, emotional, and social challenges; and

Whereas, Increased public awareness and understanding of PANDAS and PANS can lead to earlier diagnosis, improved treatment, and better outcomes for affected children; and

Whereas, Families, physicians, and researchers continue to work diligently to improve recognition, support, and research for PANDAS and PANS, and to provide resources for children who suffer from these disorders; and

Whereas, October 9th has been recognized nationally and by many states as PANDAS Awareness Day to highlight the importance of educating the public, medical professionals, and policymakers about these conditions; and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper that we in Michigan join in this recognition to support affected children and their families, and to encourage further research and awareness; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 9, 2025, as PANDAS Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 193 out of numerical order.

Reps. Cavitt, Breen, Fox, Glanville, Miller, Paiz, Rheingans, Rogers, Skaggs and Weiss offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 193.

A resolution to commemorate October 15, 2025, as a day of remembrance for the Burt Lake Burnout in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On October 15, 1900, in what has come to be known as the Burt Lake Burnout, members of the Cheboiganning Band of Ottawa and Chippewa Indians (Burt Lake Band) were forcibly removed from their homes on Indian Road near Burt Lake in northern Michigan; and

Whereas, The eviction was carried out under orders of the Cheboygan County Sheriff, acting on behalf of a land speculator who sought to take possession of the Band's property, despite the Burt Lake Band having lived on and maintained the land since recorded history; and

Whereas, During this tragic event, the homes of the Burt Lake Band families were burned to the ground, forcing men, women, and children into the cold of October without shelter, marking one of the most shameful episodes of forced displacement in Michigan's history; and

Whereas, The Burt Lake Burnout is a solemn reminder of the struggles, injustices, and resilience of Indigenous people in Michigan, as well as a call to reflect on the importance of truth, recognition, and healing; and

Whereas, Today, the Burt Lake Band continues to honor the memory of their ancestors while working toward the preservation of their culture, heritage, and pursuit of justice; and

Whereas, It is appropriate that the state of Michigan recognize October 15th as a day to memorialize the Burt Lake Burnout, to acknowledge the injustices committed, and to honor the endurance of the Burt Lake Band; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate October 15, 2025, as a day of remembrance for the Burt Lake Burnout in the state of Michigan. We extend our deepest respect to the Burt Lake Band and reaffirm our commitment to truth, justice, and reconciliation; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the leadership of the Burt Lake Band as a symbol of this recognition.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. DeBoer, Paquette, Kuhn, Markkanen, Fox, Bierlein, Neyer, Pavlov, Jenkins-Arno, Kunse, Phil Green, Wortz, Meerman, St. Germaine, Jaime Greene, Thompson, Kelly, Schmaltz, Linting, VanderWall, Paiz and Posthumus offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 188.

A resolution to declare October 12–October 18, 2025, as Homeschool Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Our state recognizes the importance of education in shaping the future of its citizens; and

Whereas, Section 380.10 of the Michigan School Code states: “It is the natural, fundamental right of parents and legal Guardians to determine and direct the care, teaching, and education of their children”; and

Whereas, Homeschooling provides an opportunity for individualized instruction tailored to the unique needs and abilities of each student; and

Whereas, Homeschooling families contribute significantly to the educational landscape of Michigan, fostering a sense of community and diversity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 12-October 18, 2025, as Homeschool Week in the state of Michigan. We recognize the hard work, dedication, and commitment of home educator parents and guardians in providing quality education to their children and acknowledge the right of parents and guardians as outlined in the Michigan school code to choose homeschooling as a legitimate educational alternative and emphasizes the importance of respecting the diversity of educational choices available to Michigan families; and be it further

Resolved, That Homeschool Week aims to promote and celebrate the benefits of homeschooling as a viable educational option for families in Michigan. We commend homeschooling parents and guardians for their dedication to their children’s education and for contributing positively to the overall educational fabric of our state.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

Paiz

In The Chair: Smit

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
Rep. Posthumus moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Paiz, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I voted no because I believed that Speech Pathologists should have certification beyond licensing to qualify to receive Medicaid reimbursement. Currently, that Certification is Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech-Language Pathology (CCC-SLP) from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA). However, in retrospect, I may have made an incorrect vote about codification based on the belief that I mentioned above, and also by my misunderstanding which was that the CCC is offered through a non-profit or not-for-profit and not the state.”

House Bill No. 4690, entitled

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
Rep. Posthumus moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Paiz, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Increases the fee paid by the Liquor Control Commission to vendors of spirits and authorized distribution agents. I voted No because, according to House Fiscal Analysis, the bill would cost the state about $4 - $5 million dollars in lost revenue. Given that our state budget will be a deficit next year, I’m trying to keep revenue loss to a minimum. If we were in better economic times, my vote would have been yes.”

House Bill No. 4823, entitled
