

HORSE RIDING STABLES AND SALES BARNs (EXCERPT)
Act 93 of 1974

287.116 Suspension, revocation, or denial of license; grounds.

Sec. 6.

The department may suspend, revoke, or deny the issuance of a license for any of the following reasons:

- (a) The failure to provide suitable shelter, food, and water for horses or ponies.
- (b) The maintenance of an unsanitary or unfit riding stable or sales barn.
- (c) The failure to provide suitable harnesses, saddles, bridles, and other equipment reasonably necessary under the circumstances.
- (d) The use of unfit horses for riding or driving purposes.
- (e) The commission of an act of cruelty or torture or the inflicting of unnecessary pain upon a horse or pony, whether by the licensee or by his agent or employee.
- (f) The supplying of false information to the department, the refusal to permit inspection or furnish records upon request, or otherwise obstructing the department in the performance of its duties.

History: 1974, Act 93, Imd. Eff. Apr. 25, 1974