

REVISED JUDICATURE ACT OF 1961 (EXCERPT)
Act 236 of 1961

600.1960 Substituted service; jurisdiction on defendant's interest.

Sec. 1960.

Service of process pursuant to sections 1940 to 1960 does not give personal jurisdiction over the person of the defendant but is a reasonable means of notice to the defendant to subject the appropriate interest of the defendant in the matters described in chapter 7 of this act to the jurisdiction of the court.
