

MENTAL HEALTH CODE (EXCERPT)
Act 258 of 1974

330.1644 Termination of guardianship; legal and civil rights; applicability of section to termination by term expiration and court order.

Sec. 644.

Upon termination of a guardianship, the developmentally disabled person regains all legal and civil rights that had been designated as legal disabilities or specifically granted to the guardian. This section applies to termination by expiration of the term of a guardianship and termination by court order under section 637(4)(b).
