

UNIFORM RENDITION OF PRISONERS AS WITNESSES IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS ACT

Act 161 of 1967

AN ACT to provide for the interstate use of prisoners as witnesses in criminal proceedings.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

780.111 Uniform rendition of prisoners as witnesses in criminal proceedings act; short title.

Sec. 1.

This act shall be known and may be cited as the "uniform rendition of prisoners as witnesses in criminal proceedings act".

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.112 Uniform rendition of prisoners as witnesses in criminal proceedings act; definitions.

Sec. 2.

As used in this act:

- (a) "Witness" means a person who is confined in a penal institution in any state and whose testimony is desired in another state in any criminal proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or in any criminal action before a court.
- (b) "Penal institutions" includes a jail, prison, penitentiary, house of correction or other place of penal detention.
- (c) "State" includes any state of the United States, the district of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any territory of the United States.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.113 Request of foreign court; certificate of state judge having jurisdiction over prisoner, contents; notice; hearing.

Sec. 3.

A judge of a state court of record in another state, which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons confined in penal institutions within that state to attend and testify in this state, may certify (1) that there is a criminal proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or a criminal action pending in the court, (2) that a person who is confined in a penal institution in this state may be a material witness in the proceeding, investigation or action, and (3) that his presence will be required during a specified time. Upon presentation of the certificate to any judge having jurisdiction over the person confined, and upon notice to the attorney general, the judge in this state shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall make an order directed to the person having custody of the prisoner requiring that the prisoner be produced before him at the hearing.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.114 Orders directing witness to attend and testify; contents; production of witness.

Sec. 4.

If at the hearing the judge determines (1) that the witness may be material and necessary, (2) that his attending and testifying are not adverse to the interests of this state or to the health or legal rights of the witness, (3) that the laws of the state in which he is requested to testify will give him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process because of any act committed prior to his arrival in the state under the order, and (4) that as a practical matter the possibility is negligible that the witness may be subject to arrest or to the service of civil or criminal process in any state through which he will be required to pass, the judge shall issue an order, with a copy of the certificate attached, (a) directing the witness to attend and testify, (b) directing the person having custody of the witness to produce him, in the court where the criminal action is pending, or where the grand jury investigation is pending, at a time and place specified in the order, and (c) prescribing such conditions as the judge shall determine.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.115 Orders; contents; custodial safeguards; expenses; time effective.

Sec. 5.

The order to the witness and to the person having custody of the witness shall provide for the return of the witness at the conclusion of his testimony, proper safeguards on his custody, and proper financial reimbursement or prepayment by the requesting jurisdiction for all expenses incurred in the production and return of the witness, and may prescribe such other conditions as the judge thinks proper or necessary. The order shall not become effective until the judge of the state requesting the witness enters an order directing compliance with the conditions prescribed.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.116 Inapplicability of act.

Sec. 6.

This act does not apply to any person in this state confined as insane or mentally ill or as a defective delinquent.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.117 Request for witnesses confined in foreign state; certificate; contents; foreign court having jurisdiction over prisoner, presentment of certificate.

Sec. 7.

If a person confined in a penal institution in any other state may be a material witness in a criminal action pending in a court of record or in a grand jury investigation in this state, a judge of the court may certify (1) that there is a criminal proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or a criminal action pending in the court, (2) that a person who is confined in a penal institution in the other state may be a material witness in the proceeding, investigation or action, and (3) that his presence will be required during a specified time. The certificate shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the other state having jurisdiction over the prisoner confined, and a notice shall be given to the attorney general of the state in which the prisoner is confined.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.118 Order of compliance with terms and conditions of foreign judge.

Sec. 8.

The judge of the court in this state may enter an order directing compliance with the terms and conditions prescribed by the judge of the state in which the witness is confined.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.119 Immunity of witness; arrest or service of process.

Sec. 9.

If a witness from another state comes into or passes through this state under an order directing him to attend and testify in this or another state, he shall not while in this state pursuant to the order be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, because of any act committed prior to his arrival in this state under the order.

History: 1967, Act 161, Imd. Eff. June 30, 1967

780.120 Construction of act.

Sec. 10.

This act shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.
