

STATE CONSTITUTION (EXCERPT)
CONSTITUTION OF MICHIGAN OF 1963

§ 28 Bills, subjects at special session.

Sec. 28.

When the legislature is convened on extraordinary occasions in special session no bill shall be passed on any subjects other than those expressly stated in the governor's proclamation or submitted by special message.

History: Const. 1963, Art. IV, § 28, Eff. Jan. 1, 1964

Former Constitution: See Const. 1908, Art. V, § 22.